

DOCUMENT RETENTION & DESTRUCTION POLICY

The Baltimore Humane Society takes seriously its obligations to preserve information including, but limited to, litigation, audits, investigations, adoptions, surrenders, euthanasias, and veterinary services.

From time to time, the Executive Director may issue a notice, known as a "legal hold," suspending the destruction of records due to pending, threatened, or otherwise reasonably foreseeable litigation, audits, government investigations, or similar proceedings. No records specified in any legal hold may be destroyed, even if the scheduled destruction date has passed, until the legal hold is withdrawn in writing by the Executive Director.

The following table provides the minimum requirements.

1. Electronic Documents and Records

Electronic documents will be retained as if they were paper documents. Therefore, any electronic files that fall into one of the document types on the above schedule will be maintained for the appropriate amount of time. If a user has sufficient reason to keep an e-mail message, the message should be printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file or moved to an “archive” computer file folder. Backup and recovery methods will be tested on a regular basis.

2. Emergency Planning

The Baltimore Humane Society’s records will be stored in a safe, secure, and accessible manner. Documents and financial files that are essential to keeping the Baltimore Humane Society operating in an emergency will be duplicated or backed up at least every week and maintained off-site.

3. Document Destruction

The Executive Director is responsible for the ongoing process of identifying its records, which have met the required retention period, and overseeing their destruction. Destruction of financial and personnel-related documents will be accomplished by shredding.

Document destruction will be suspended immediately, upon any indication of an official investigation or when a lawsuit is filed or appears imminent. Destruction will be reinstated upon conclusion of the investigation.

4. Compliance

Failure on the part of employees to follow this policy can result in possible civil and criminal sanctions against the Baltimore Humane Society and its employees and possible disciplinary action against responsible individuals. The Executive Director and Board Chair will periodically review these procedures with legal counsel or the Baltimore Humane Society’s certified public accountant to ensure that they are in compliance with new or revised regulations.
