Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - To support the current and future operations of the Society.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - The Society is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and comparable State law, and contributions to it are tax deductible within the limitations prescribed by the Code. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Society may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the positions. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the year ended June 30, 2015. The Society files federal and state information returns and is generally no longer subject to income tax examinations by major tax authorities for tax years prior to 2012.
